Mental Health Clinic Is Being Urged for County

The Jones County Commissioner's Court is expected to vote Monday on establishing a mental health clinic in Jones County. Jones County has been approved for a mental health resource center which would operate under the state hospital at Big Spring, but the county must furnish a building and $4800 a year.

The Commissioner's Court has had the clinic under advisement for some time now is expected to make a decision on the matter at their regular meeting Monday.

A number of Jones County citizens have been working on this project for some time with most of the efforts in that direction coming from the mental health committee of the Stamford Chamber of Commerce.

Under the state sponsored program the clinic would offer numerous programs in mental health to communities within the county with the state supplying the local director. All the state's resources would be available to the local clinic. As the clinic's work load increased, additional personnel would be added.

The Rev. Larry Thomas, Stamford Presbyterian minister, who has been active in efforts to secure a clinic for Jones County, said that in recent months some Jones County patients have been taken care of in the Haskell center but they have more patients than they can care for. The Haskell clinic is part of the Vernon hospital district.

Thomas said that the centers help in many ways, including counseling in cases of marital trouble as well as mental health and rehabilitation.

He said that the clinics provide care for persons suffering from severe emotional disorders and operate as a counseling source to professional working with other people in the communities. This help would be available to doctors, ministers and teachers, he said.

Although the county has been approved for the clinic, no definite location has been settled upon.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Flowers Stolen

Dear Editor:

On going back to my loved one's grave, I found every flower, not just wreaths but every flower had been stolen. I think you could call it stealing for they are paid for and placed on the grave in respect for all concerned, they belong to that one grave. I was heart broken. It was told me that every funeral at this cemetery has all its flowers taken. The 8th Commandment says "Thou shalt not steal." What is even worse is to know who is doing this.

NEWS AND VIEWS

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

In talking to Mayor Joe Ford it seems to be a certain amount of misunderstanding about the paving project that the city is undertaking.

Basically, the problem seems to be in understanding just what part the Federal Revenue Sharing Funds will be used for. Evidently, some people thought that the revenue sharing funds would play a bigger part in the cost of the paving project and were surprised to find that they would be assessed so much for the paving.

As the Mayor explains it, the city is using the revenue sharing funds to pay for the alley entrances, street intersections and the engineering costs. This leaves the homeowners to pay for the paving expenses along their property.

What really seems to be the problem is the high cost of paving. Paving, like everything else, has gone up considerably over the past five to ten years. It comes as quite a shock to most people to realize that paving now costs around $10 a foot after the city pays its share. Most people can still remember when paving was about $5 a front foot.

A hearing on the city budget for the coming year will be held at the city hall Monday afternoon. In looking over the proposed budget, one can easily see that the city, like everyone else is faced with the rising costs. Total expenses for the coming year are projected to be about $17,000 higher than they were this year.

Because of several bookkeeping changes in the new budget it is almost impossible to compare this year's budget against last year's budget by departments. Where the city used to have just a parks department it has now been combined into a parks and maintenance department. Because of this, expenses for the department have jumped from $1,500 to $15,000. But this puts all of the equipment repair, fuel and oil expenses for the city under one department rather than being scattered out in the various departments.

The administration department budget is up because some of the salary expenses have been transferred to this department that used to be listed under other departments.

Total expenses for the city for the past year were $314,591.51 and are projected for the coming year to be $332,220.01. Based on projected income, the city will be operating in the red this coming year as it will spend about $12,000 more than it will take in.

It is possible that next year's revenue sharing funds will help offset this deficit and will avert any tax increase for the next year or so.

CONSECRATION SERVICE SET SUNDAY — The church plant of First Methodist Church will be consecrated in a special service here Sunday at 11 a.m. with Bishop Alsie Carleton as the principal speaker. The church sanctuary, in left of picture, was added to the educational building and was completed last May. Opening services were held May 28. Dr. Darris Egger, district superintendent, The Rev. Johnnie Williams, pastor, and Johnny Bryant, chairman of the building committee, will also take part in the special service.

Dwayne Miller, 20, Drowns At Possum Kingdom Sunday

Charles Dwayne Miller, 20, a junior at Hardin-Simmons University, drowned Sunday afternoon while on an outing with friends at Possum Kingdom Lake in Palo Pinto County.

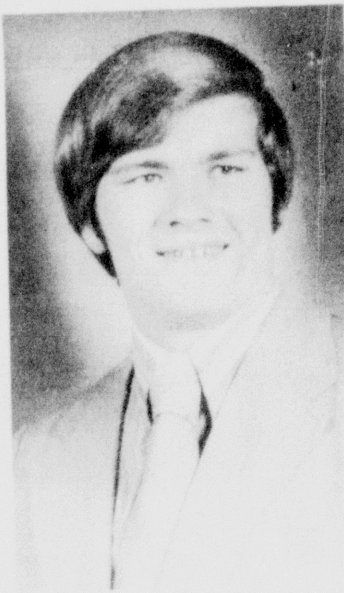

The family said observers at the scene were unable to determine the exact circumstances of the accident. Reports were that Miller was using scuba diving equipment near the shore and failed to surface from the 15-foot depth. Other divers were summoned to aid in the search. He was pronounced dead about 6:30 p.m.

Services were held at 4 p.m. Tuesday in First Baptist Church with the pastor, the Rev. Howard Jones, the Rev. Marshall Stewart, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, and Rev. Byron Bryant of Hardin-Simmons University, officiating.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Miller and was born here Nov. 24, 1952.

He was a member of First Baptist Church and had a perfect Sunday School attendance record of 12 years.

'Project Safeguard' Being Launched To Emphasize Safe Use of Chemicals

A program to remind farmers of the need to use chemical pesticides safely is now underway in Texas and 13 other Southern states. The program, known as "Project Safeguard," is designed to emphasize the safe use of chemical insecticides being used as substitutes for DDT, and of other less persistent but generally more toxic insecticides, according to Kirby Clayton County Extension Agent.

DDT is no longer registered by the state and Federal regulatory agencies for agricultural use in Texas. Insecticides used as substitutes for DDT are less persistent but generally more toxic and may represent a greater hazard to persons handling, mixing, applying or otherwise exposed to the chemicals.

"Project Safeguard" activities in Jones County will include special emphasis on insecticide selection and safe use as a part of meetings and other educational activities relating to the use of insecticides. Additional activities will include the use of posters and special publications describing the safe use of insecticides.

All pesticide users are reminded to exercise care to avoid accidental poisoning. An important step is to minimize exposure to the chemicals. Here are some safe use tips:

1. Always observe recommended protective measures specifically mentioned on the label.
2. Cover up before exposure, not after.
3. Use clean clothing daily and bathe (shower) at the first opportunity following pesticide use.

Miscellaneous

THE HAMLIN JAYCEES
meet Wednesday 8 p.m., at the Jaycee Building.
RENT the Jaycee Community Building for parties, family reunions and special occasions. Call Jerry Smith 576-3638.

4. A wide brimmed hat, preferably waterproof, offers protection from downward drift for face and neck areas. Contaminated hatbands can present a problem; thus, use an inexpensive hat that can be discarded after minimal use or one with a replaceable hatband.

5. Wear unlined, natural rubber, gauntlet gloves for best protection. Prevent contamination of the inside of the gloves.

6. A long-sleeved, light colored, washable cloth jacket, preferably water proof is desirable.

7. If exposure to the lower trunk and legs is anticipated (mixing loading, etc.) a water proof apron is essential.

8. Use water proof shoes or boots. Leather shoes become contaminated and crack after a few wettings and thus are also become wet and are a constant source of exposure.

9. Shield the eyes to avoid contamination, particularly if splashing may occur (mixing, loading, etc.). Goggles or a face shield will offer protection.

Oral and respiratory exposure must also be prevented.

Always wash hands and face thoroughly before eating or drinking following pesticide use. Do not expose lunch, lunch container, beverage or drinking vessel to pesticides. Use a respirator if called for on the label of the product being used. Handle respirators in accordance with manufacturers directions.

Project Safeguard is a cooperative activity sponsored jointly by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Health and public service agencies, trade associations and manufacturers are also involved in the program effort.

NEWS FROM . . .

Sylvester

By MRS. R. M. BABB

The wind is really blowing this Monday morning, so look out most anything can happen before the day is over. We had 2.45 in. of rain last week which was and wasn't needed. First the little feed and cotton needed it, while the wheat didn't, but again — we can't have everything.

We were sorry to learn of the illness of Pearl Johnson. She spent several days in the Hamlin hospital and was sent to West Texas Medical for surgery to insert a "Pace Maker" to aid her heart.

My last report on Mrs. Pete Perales was that she was doing as well as could be expected. She was rushed to Hamlin then on to Hendrick's for emergency surgery one night last week.

Mrs. W. B. Brown and Mrs. R. M. Babb attended the Postal meeting at Wyatt's in Abilene Saturday night. Along as a guest was Jana Jennings. We learned that it is and will be very important in the future to have the complete address on the piece of mail you are mailing, even local mail.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Maberry drove to Irving this past weekend and brought the granddaughters home with them. Lori and Angela were very anxious for the visit.

The Newman Reunion was attended by some 130 people that registered. The persons coming the farthest were from New Mexico. Everyone seemed to enjoy seeing old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kiser and children of Abilene visited over the weekend in the Roy Kiser home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Herron and girls attended a wedding in Shallowater over Thursday and Friday.

A "Get Together" at the Baptist Church for the pastor, Bro. Jennings and wife, also Mrs. Charles Scott was a success. Seems each thought the affair was for the other, a good day was reported.

Mrs. Ezell Whitten of Hamlin visited friends here one day last week.

The Mike Dobbs family of Big Spring visited over the weekend in the Woodrow Lawlis home.

Combines are going all around and I am sure these farmers are watching the sky for any kind of cloud. We will hope they can get all their wheat out.

Fort Griffin Fandangle Sets Six Shows In June

The Fort Griffin Fandangle Association announces that great progress is being made on the 1973 Fandangle to be presented June 21, 22, 23, 28, 29, and 30 in Albany, Texas. On these six nights the show, entirely the product of the 2,000 people of Albany, will present a cast of over 200 people, some twenty-five mounted horsemen and many antique vehicles for audience entertainment. The Fandangle Butterfield stagecoach, Texas Central train, steam calliope, and the herd of Longhorn cattle from Fort Griffin State Park will play an integral part in the production.

The show is based on pioneer life at the frontier outpost of Fort Griffin and the surrounding area. Out of old books and out of memories of descendants of these pioneers have come stories and ideas for the many songs and scenes used in the Fandangle.

The Fandangle is staged in an especially built Prairie Theatre which provides an authentic and scenic background for the historical drama. During the show, Indians stalk the hills while pioneer families prepare to settle in this ranching country along the Clear Fork of the Brazos River. A cowboy spends a starlit night by a campfire; at home, his wife sings her lonesome song and awaits his return. The wild and bawdy days of the famous western fort of Fort Griffin are recreated in song and in dance and the audience is drawn into the rich heritage of the past.

The Fandangle is a never-to-be forgotten experience for all who view it. Most of the audience is comprised of people who have seen it before and eagerly await another season. Tickets to the show are priced at $6.00, $4.00, $3.50, and $2.00. The Box Office will open June 1st at the Fandangle office, Box 185, Albany, Texas. The colorful Fandangle Parade will be staged Thursday, June 21. An old fashioned chuck wagon type barbecue is held each evening from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. on the Courthouse Square.
